New York U. S. Attorney (USA), Rudolph Giuliani.

b6

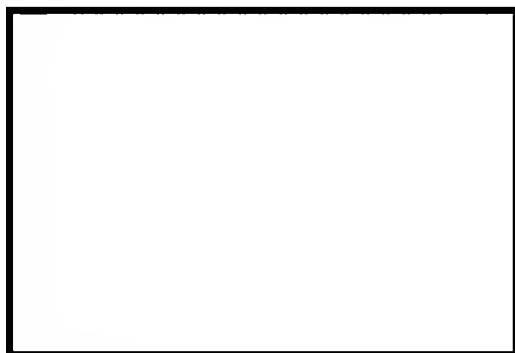

b7C

b7D

"Benny" is believed identical to Bahri Drishti, who is currently serving a 20-year prison sentence for conspiracy to distribute cocaine. "Benny"
claimed to have operated Benny's Pizzeria in Hoboken, New Jersey until 1981, when he was prosecuted by Giuliani for drug violations.
Drishti is currently temporarily lodged in Tucson, Arizona, at the Metropolitan Correction Center.

New York reports that Bahri Drishti and two others were recently sentenced for various narcotics charges in New York. These individuals were central figures in a "loose"
group of Albanian-Yugoslavian drug dealers
responsible for importing in excess of 50 kilos of heroin. This group operated between the years 1978 and 1984 and is allegedly responsible for numerous murders and attempted murders.

USA Giuliani and U. S. Marshals Service, New York, have been advised of this matter.

USA's Office, Southern District of New York, concurs with New York's strategy to openly interview everyone concerned in this case, including Drishti and his convicted associates.

[redacted] Attached Denver teletype further advises that "Benny" [redacted] [redacted] had operated a very successful pizzeria in Hoboken, New Jersey, named Benny's Pizzeria, until 1981, when he was prosecuted by Giuliani for drug violations and was eventually convicted and sentenced to 25 years in prison.

Through investigation, Denver thinks they have identified "Benny" as Bahri Drishti, age 47, who is currently serving 20 years for conspiracy to distribute cocaine. He is temporarily lodged at the Tucson, Arizona, Metropolitan Correction Center, en route to the U. S. Penitentiary at Lompoc, California.

NYO has personally advised USA Giuliani and the U. S. Marshals Service, New York City, of the threat.

In summary for receiving offices and benefit of the Bureau, BAHRI DRISHTI was interviewed at the U. S. PENITENTIARY (USP), Lompoc, California, on 4/5/85, where he was received on 4/1/85, and is temporarily held in a detention unit pending routine assignments within the USP. DRISHTI was tearful and much weeping and wailing was heard during the interview.

DRISHTI steadfastly maintains he is innocent of the drug crimes of which he was convicted and advised his involvement was nothing more than being a peacemaker to various individuals when he managed and was an entertainer at a Greek restaurant specializing in belly dancing. He claims no knowledge whatsoever of any plot or plans to murder [redacted] the U. S. Attorney [redacted] or his sentencing judge regarding whom he stated, "God bless him (the judge), he should live 150 years." DRISHTI denied ever thinking of or speaking about the death of any official, but does believe his former defense attorney was incompetent. He specifically denies talking of a plot to murder anyone [redacted] but confirmed his nickname to be BENNY, [redacted]

b7C
b7D

[redacted] and that he did operate a very successful pizza restaurant, [redacted] He knows [redacted]

On 4/4/85, he telephoned [redacted] [redacted] which DRISHTI now feels will go unheeded because of these false allegations. He believes persons unknown are intent upon causing him difficulty, hence the tears, weeping, and wailing. He adamantly stated that the FBI source was bearing false witness against him.

b7C

The BUREAU OF PRISONS has not yet prepared an inmate file regarding DRISHTI, whose records now consist of his judgment and confiction documents, plus an inmate transportation order. No visiting records have been established and any record of visits at previous locations did not accompany DRISHTI to Lompoc.

His mail and telephone calls will be monitored temporarily and the Lompoc USP officials have been advised of this matter.

DRISHTI was anxious that it be known that during the summer of 1984 he cooperated with an FBI Agent named [redacted] in New York City concerning communist activities of Albanians at the UNITED NATIONS. He stated that the FBI Agent was part of the political department of the FBI.
